

bring the criminals to justice, it has unleashed vitriol against the human rights organizations, accusing them of drug-running and the like. This is the junta's usual pattern, whenever it is found to be scraping the bottom of the morality barrel: child labor, forced labor, torture. It denies all and attacks the truth-tellers. Yet, over the years the evidence of barbarity has been so inescapable that even the junta's would-be friends have found it impossible to overlook it. Burma's leaders cannot bring the criminals to justice because they are the criminals.

Later this month Secretary of State Colin Powell will travel to the region for meetings with senior officials. Earlier this month he instructed his diplomats to express outrage over the reported use of rape as a tactic of war; he should personally express the same outrage. He also should make clear that Aung San Suu Kyi—whose democratic party won an overwhelming victory in 1990 elections that the junta nullified—should be permitted more room to maneuver: permission to publish a newspaper, for starters. The Burmese regime should not receive rewards for cosmetic liberalization.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. MARIAN C. O'DONNELL

• Mr. SESSIONS. Madam President, I rise today to pay tribute to Mrs. Marian C. O'Donnell, an outstanding Civil Servant who will retire from the Federal Government on August 3, 2002 after distinguishing herself with over 31 years of dedicated service. During her career, Mrs. O'Donnell has served in a succession of key positions where she has established a pattern of clearly exceptional performance and service leading to outstanding results in all her duties for the Department of the Army and the Department of Defense.

Mrs. O'Donnell served in a succession of administrative and secretarial positions of ever increasing responsibility in Germany and the United States culminating in her current assignment for the past 15 years as the personal assistant to the Army's Chief of Legislative Liaison. Marian O'Donnell's efforts and accomplishments are examples of extraordinary dedication and professionalism. Throughout her career, she was honored repeatedly by her superiors because of her efficiency, meticulous attention to detail, and ability to handle a multitude of tasks simultaneously. Marion's understated charm resulted in numerous outstanding performance ratings, quality step increases, and two Commander's Award for Civilian Service which so many of her peers have tried to emulate.

While serving as the personal assistant to the Chief, Legislative Liaison Marian O'Donnell played a key role in the Army's congressional liaison efforts. She is the conduit through which Members of Congress, their staffs, senior Army and Defense officials dealt with the Army's leadership. A competent and unflappable professional, Marion has always placed the Army and our Nation first. Throughout her service, Marian O'Donnell was regarded as the thread resulting in smooth and flawless changes to the Army's congressional liaison leadership.

Despite the demands of her career Marian still found time to do volunteer work with her Church and serve as counselor with its Pregnancy Crisis Center. She is truly a civil servant of the first order and an outstanding citizen. On behalf of the Congress of the United States and the people of this great Nation, I offer my heartfelt thanks for her years of service and best wishes for a well-deserved retirement. ●
